DATE : 24th AUGUST 2022 11-wp.423.2021.w.ia.863.2022.doc P.C. :

1. We are informed that the dispute between the petitioner and the respondent No.4 has been amicably settled and that Consent Terms have been entered into between the parties. We are further informed that pursuant thereto, the petition filed in the Family Court has been amended and as such divorce is sought under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act.

2. Learned Counsel for the petitioner has tendered an order dated 2nd August 2022, passed by this Court (Coram: Prakash D. Naik, J.) in Civil Contempt Petition No.474 of 2019. Para 3 of the said order dated 2nd August 2022, reads thus:-

"3. In view of the consent terms executed between the parties the family Court is requested to waive mandatory period of six months for deciding the divorce petition and to proceed with passing the decree under Section 13-B of the Hindu Marriage Act, as agreed by both the parties. It is expected that both the parties will adhere the consent terms."
