JUDGMENT

Parties along with their counsel are present. These appeals under Section 19(1) of the Family Courts Act, 1984 have been filed against common judgment and decree dated 21.03.2018 passed by the Family Court by which petition filed by the husband under Section 13 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 (hereinafter referred to as 'the Act') has been dismissed and the petition filed by the wife under Section 9 of the Act has been allowed.

2. Learned counsel for the parties jointly submit that the dispute between the parties has been amicably resolved.

3. In this connection, our attention has been invited to the memo which has been duly signed by the appellant as well as respondent. The terms and conditions of the compromise read as under:

1. During the pendency of the above Miscellaneous First Appeals, at the intervention of their common friends and well-wishers, the parties to the above Appeals have settled the dispute amicably out of Court.

(a) In terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties, the appellants-husband in the above Appeals, is required to pay a sum of Rs.12,00,000/- (Rupees Twelve Lakhs only) to the respondent-wife herein, in full and final settlement of the claim of the respondent-wife as permanent alimony.

(b) In terms of the settlement arrived at, the appellant-husband in the above Appeals is paying the agreed sum of Rs.12,00,000/-

(Rupees Twelve Lakhs only) by way of Demand Draft bearing in the following manner:-

A. Rs.5,00,000/- (Rupees Five Laksh only) by way of Demand Draft, bearing No.253297, dated 27.03.2023, drawn on Canara Bank, Thippur Branch, Mysore.

B. Rs.4,00,000/- (Rupees Four Laksh Only) by way of Demand Draft, bearing No.303288, dated 27.03.2023, drawn on Canara Bank, J.P. Nagar 7th Phase, Bangalore.
