I.A.No.1 of 2025

Heard Smt.P.Anuradha, learned counsel representing Sri Sudhakara Rao Ambati, learned counsel for the petitioner.

Learned counsel for the petitioner contends that the petitioner is none other than the wife of the respondent/husband, due to the matrimonial disputes between both the parties, the petitioner/wife is residing separately at her parents' house at Palakollu, West Godavari District.

He would further contend that to cause unnecessary inconvenience to the petitioner/ wife the respondent/husband had filed F.C.O.P.No.2259 of 2022, on the file of the Additional District Judge-Cum-Family Court, Visakhapatnam, under Section 12(b) of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955, seeking nullity of marriage. He would further contend that the distance between Palakollu, West Godavari District and Visakhapatnam, is approximately 260kms and therefore, it is very difficult for the petitioner to appear before the Additional District Judge-Cum-Family Court, Visakhapatnam, on each and every adjournment without any male support and that the petitioner/wife is constrained to file the present transfer petition.

Perused the record.

Considering the submissions made by the learned counsel for the petitioner and for the reasons mentioned in the accompanying affidavit, there shall be an interim stay on all further proceedings including the appearance of the petitioner i.e., the respondent in F.C.O.P.No.2259 of 2022, on the file of the Additional District Judge-Cum-Family Court, Visakhapatnam, till 29.04.2025.

Learned counsel for the petitioner is permitted to take out personal notice to the respondent through Registered Post with Acknowledgment Due and file proof of service before the Registry.
