Dated, this the 16th day of September, 2025

JUDGMENT

Today, when these matters came up for hearing, the learned counsel appearing for both sides submitted that the entire disputes between the parties have been settled and a joint petition has been filed before this Court.

3. We have examined the joint petition and we notice that it has been signed by the parties and subscribed by their counsel. The terms of the joint petition are lawful and therefore, the settlement arrived at by the parties is accepted.

4. In view of the settlement arrived at by the parties, appellant and respondent have filed a petition under Section 138 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for dissolution of their marriage by mutual consent, wherein they have stated that they have mutually agreed and decided for dissolution of marriage voluntarily and there is no collusion. Further it is stated that there is no force, fraud or undue influence for obtaining the consent for divorce. Mat.A No.674/2020 & R.P(FC) No.173/2018 4 2025 : KER: 69014

6. Both parties have affirmed that the entire disputes between the parties have been settled in terms of the joint petition filed by the parties.

7. We are convinced that the marriage between the spouses who are Hindus has been irretrievably broken down and there is no possibility of reunion and divorce is the viable option and all the attempts of reunion have been failed. We are also convinced that the parties have voluntarily filed the petition under Section 138 of the Hindu Marriage Act and there is no collusion between the parties and this Court is satisfied that the consent was not obtained through fraud or coercion.

8. We are of the view that this is a fit case to grant divorce by mutual consent on the application filed under Section 138 of the Hindu Marriage Act.

9. In view of the settlement, the judgment and decree in O.P No,841/2014 of Family Court, Kannur stands set aside and the application filed under Section 138 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 for divorce by mutual consent is allowed.

10i The marriage between the appellant and the respondent is dissolved by a decree of divorce by mutual consent under Section Mat.A No.674/2020 & R.P(FC) No.173/2018 5 2025 : KER: 69014 138 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955 with effect from today. Mat.A No.674/2020 is disposed of as above.

11. In terms of the settlement arrived at between the parties, R.P(FC) No.173/2018 stands dismissed.

The parties are directed to act implicitly in terms of the joint petition and shall comply all the terms therein, which do form part of the judgment.
