

Sushma Devi Ors vs State on 26 September, 2023

IN THE COURT OF SWATI GUPTA-I, ACJ-CUM-ARC-CUM-CCJ
NEW DELHI DISTRICT, PATIALA HOUSE COURTS, NEW DELHI

SUCCESSION CASE NO. 41/2016 (old no. 2/13)

1. Smt. Sushma
W/o Sh. Naresh Kumar,
R/o H. No. 294, Block-85
New P.K. Road,
R.K. Ashram Marg,
New Delhi-110001

2. Sh. Vinay Kumar @ Rohit
S/o Sh. Naresh Kumar
R/o H. No. 294, Block-85
New P.K. Road,
R.K. Ashram Marg,
New Delhi-110001

3. Ms. Nisha
D/o Sh. Naresh Kumar
R/o H. No. 294, Block-85
New P.K. Road,
R.K. Ashram Marg,
New Delhi-110001

... Petitioners

Versus

1. State, through its Director L.H.M.C. & S.K.
Hospital New Delhi-1 under Govt. of India,
Ministry of Health & Family Welfare, Director
General of Health Service.

2. Smt. Bimlesh
D-1/815, Gali No. 7
Ashok Nagar Shahdara Delhi
Also at- Smt. Bimlesh
Safai Karamchari

SC No. 41/16

Page No. 1 of 18

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

Office of Karamchari Rajya
Beema Nigam, Aushdhalaya,
Aelopathik and Aushdhalaya
Nand Nagri, Delhi-93

... Respondents

PETITION FOR GRANT OF SUCCESSION CERTIFICATE
UNDER SECTION 372 OF THE INDIAN SUCCESSION ACT, 1925

Date of institution of the petition : 04.02.2013 (More than 10 years old)

Date of arguments : 26.09.2023
 Date of pronouncement of judgment : 26.09.2023
 Final Judgment : Allowed in favour of petitioner No. 3.

JUDGMENT

1. Petitioner has applied for succession certificate under Section 372 of the Indian Succession Act, 1925 in respect of debts / securities of deceased Late Sh. Naresh Kumar (hereinafter also referred to as 'the deceased'). The succession petition is filed in respect of gratuity, GPF, award amount, insurance, arrears of 6th pay commission, arrears of outstanding salary, leave encashment, pension benefits, etc. Case of the Petitioners:

2. It is the case of the petitioners that the petitioner no. 1 is the legally wedded wife of the deceased and petitioner Nos. 2 and 3 are the son and daughter of deceased respectively. As per the petition, the deceased was employed with L.H.M.C. & S.K. Hospital, New Delhi, as a safai karamchari, for the last more than 24 years. As per the petition, Late Sh. Naresh Kumar died on 25.01.2011 and he had left behind petitioner nos. 1 to 3 as his legal heirs and apart from them, there is no other class I legal heir of Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

the deceased. It is the case of the petitioners that after the death of the deceased, they are entitled to claim service benefits of deceased in the capacity of his class I legal heirs, which are in the form of gratuity, GPF, award amount, insurance, arrears of 6th pay commission, arrears of outstanding salary, leave encashment, pension benefits, etc. It is also alleged in the petition that respondent No. 2 has filed her false and fictitious claim for the death benefits of deceased under the garb of being his widow. As per petitioners, respondent No. 2 has no relation of any kind with the deceased and she being a stranger, has no right, title or interest in the debts and securities of the deceased. As per the petitioners, they have been asked to produce succession certificate by the Department of the deceased, by letter dated 7.2.2012. Accordingly, the present petition has been filed to claim succession petition in favour of the petitioners.

3. At the initial stage, notice was issued to the concerned department of the deceased for furnishing the details of the dues and other benefits of the deceased. In response to the said notice, a letter was filed by DGHS, LHMS & S.K. Hospital, New Delhi, furnishing the details of debts and securities of deceased. As per the same, details of amount due to late Sh. Naresh Kumar s/o late Sh. Dalip Singh, Ex. Safaiwala is stated to be as follows:

S.No.	Detail	Amount to be paid
i.	GPF	Rs. 93,056/-
ii.	Death CGEIS (lumpsum amount)	Rs. 15,000/-
iii.	Saving Fund (CGEIS)	Rs. 10,223/-
iv.	Death -cum-Retirement Gratuity	Rs. 3,23,775/-

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

v.	Leave Encashment (16 days Earned Leave and 24 days Half Pay Leave)	Rs. 13,431/-
----	--	--------------

	Total	Rs. 4,55,485/-
vi.	Recovery for leave without pay	(-) Rs. 63,956/-
	Grand Total	Rs. 3,91,529/-

4. As per the above reply, apart from the sum of Rs. 3,91,529/-, the dependent family members of the deceased are also entitled to family pension @ 4,765/- per month w.e.f. 26.01.2011 and other admissible reliefs.

5. Notice of the petition was issued upon respondents, general public & SDM/EM. Notice of the petition was issued to general public by way of publication made in newspapers "Veer Arjun" dated 05.08.2013 for inviting objections, if any, from general public. Despite publication, no objection to the grant of succession certificate in favour of petitioner was received from general public. In response to the notice, report dated 2.7.2014 was filed by Executive Magistrate, Chanakyapuri, was received. It is stated in the report that late Sh. Naresh Kumar left behind surviving members viz. Sushma (wife/petitioner no.1); Nisha (daughter/petitioner no.3); and Vinay @ Rohit (son/petitioner no.2).

6. Petitioner nos. 2 and 3 appeared in person and gave their statement on oath that they have no objection if the succession certificate is granted in favour of petitioner no. 1.

Case of respondent no. 2:

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

7. Pursuant to notice, respondent no. 2 entered appearance and filed written statement. In the written statement, it is claimed by the said respondent no.2 that she is a legally wedded wife of the deceased and accordingly she is the class I legal heir of the deceased. As per the respondent no. 2, neither the petitioner no. 1 is the legally wedded wife of the deceased nor the petitioner nos. 2 to 3 are children of deceased. Respondent no. 2 claims that being a legally wedded wife of the deceased, she is the one who is entitled to the death service benefits of the deceased. Thus, as per respondent no.2, present petition is liable to be rejected and it is further prayed that succession certificate be issued in favour of the respondent no. 2.

8. Replication was also filed by petitioners, wherein the contents of written statement were denied and the contents of petition are reiterated. In the said replication, it was also averred by the petitioners that vide order dated 13.10.2006 respondent no. 2 had given divorce to the deceased before the court of Sh. Tej Singh Kashyap, Addl. District & Sessions Judge, Tis Hazari Courts, Delhi, in proceedings bearing HMA Petition No. 58/2006 in case titled as Smt. Vimlesh Vs. Sh. Naresh Kumar.

9. In view of the pleadings of the parties, issue was framed vide order dated 25.02.2014, which is as follows:

i) Whether the petitioner had married to deceased Late Sh. Naresh Kumar, legally or not? OPP Evidence Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

10. In the petitioners' evidence, petitioner no. 1 examined herself as PW1 and tendered her affidavit as Ex.PW1/A and relied upon the following documents:

i) Copy of death certificate of her deceased husband Late Sh. Naresh Kumar - Ex.PW1/1;

ii) Copy of office ID card of her deceased husband Late Sh. Naresh Kumar - Ex.PW1/2;

iii) Copy of medical card -Mark A ;

iv) Family Details Card - Ex.PW1/4;

v) Copy of letter issued by the employer of her deceased husband -
Ex.PW1/5;

vi) Copy of election I-card of her deceased husband - Mark B ;

vii) Copy of CGHS card and aadhar card of her daughter Ms. Nisha - Ex.P3 (Colly) ;

viii) Copy of her election ID card - Mark C;

ix) Copy of her aadhar card - Ex.PW1/9 (OSR);

x) Marriage photographs - Ex.PW1/10;

xi) Copy of election ID card of her son Mr. Vinay Kumar - Ex.P1;

xii) Copy of aadhar card of her son Mr. Vinay Kumar - Ex.P12 (OSR); xiii) Certified copy of decree of divorce between the deceased and Smt. Bimlesh - xiv) Copy of cash receipt dated 23.05.2003 - Ex.PW1/15.

Ex.PW1/14; &

11. It may also be pertinent to mention here that vide order dated 12.05.2023, Ex. PW1/15 was de-exhibited. PW-1 was cross-examined by Ld. Counsel for respondent no. 2 and thereafter, discharged. No other witness was examined in PE and it was closed.

12. In the evidence of respondent no. 2, she examined herself as RW1 and tendered her affidavit as Ex.RW1/A and relied upon the following documents:

i) Copy of ration card- Ex.RW1/1 (OSR);

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

ii) Photograph at the time of marriage and family photograph- Ex.RW1/2 and Ex. RW1/3 respectively;

iii) Copy of identity card issued on 22.03.1993 to her husband showing that her husband was working in Lady Harding Medical College and Smt. S.K. Hospital, New Delhi, as Safai Karamchhari - Ex.RW1/4 (OSR);

iv) Copy of death certificate of her husband- Mark A ;

v) Two photographs of husband of petitioner and a child showing that petitioner was already married to some other person- Ex.RW1/6 & Ex. RW1/7 respectively (also already Ex. PW1/D1 and Ex. PW1/D2 respectively) ;

vi) Photocopy of application dated 28.03.2011 made to Lady Harding Medical College for release of provident fund- Mark B ;

vii) Letter dated 07.02.2012 issued by medical department- Ex.RW1/9; viii) Her Written statement - Ex. RW1/10.

13. RW-1 was cross-examined by Ld. Counsel for petitioners and thereafter, discharged. No other witness was examined in RE and it was closed.

Reasoning and Findings:

14. Detailed arguments were addressed from both the sides. Arguments heard, record perused and considered. In the present case, both petitioner no. 1 and respondent no. 2 are claiming to be legally wedded wife/widow of deceased Late Sh. Naresh Kumar. Let us first deal with the status of respondent no. 2. In this regard, it is relevant to note that petitioner no. 1 has proved certified copy of decree of divorce between the deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar and respondent no.2 as Ex. PW1/14. The said decree is dated 13.10.2006 and is passed in HMA petition no. 58/2006 titled as Smt. Vimlesh vs Sh. Naresh Kumar. As per the same, the marriage between the parties thereto was dissolved u/s. 13 (1)(ia) of Hindu Marriage Act. In the Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

cross examination of RW1 (respondent no.2), she has stated that she did not know if any divorce decree was passed by Court for dissolution of marriage between her and late Sh. Naresh Kumar. She further admitted that a case regarding divorce was pending between her and late Sh. Naresh, which was filed by late Sh. Naresh. When RW1 was confronted with Ex. PW1/14 and asked about its correctness, she stated that, "It must be correct if the same is passed by the court". No question is also put in cross examination of PW1 regarding Ex. PW1/14. Thus, the veracity of the document Ex. PW1/14 is not disputed by respondent no.2. Consequently, as on the date of death late Sh. Naresh Kumar, his marriage with respondent no.2 had already been dissolved by a decree of divorce and thus, respondent no.2 is clearly not a legal heir of deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar and is not entitled for succession certificate.

15. Coming now to the status of petitioner no.1, in this regard, PW1 has relied upon Ex. PW1/4 which is family details card, Ex. PW1/10 marriage photographs, Ex. P3 which is copy of CGHS card and Aadhar card of her daughter and Ex.P1 which is copy of election ID card of her son, and Ex. P12 which is Aadhar card of her son. As regards marriage photograph Ex. PW1/10, RW1 (respondent no.2) has admitted that late Sh. Naresh and Smt. Sushma Devi are seen in the said photograph. The said photograph depicts marriage ceremony taking place with exchange of garlands in the presence of several persons. PW1 has also deposed in her cross examination that, "I got married with deceased Naresh Kumar in a temple in Gokulpuri, East Delhi. The said temple is called Shiv Mandir. The marriage was attended by about Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

10-12 persons from both the sides. From my side, my father Late Sh. Munni Lal, my mother Late Smt. Sheela Devi, my brother Late Sh. Bishan Lal and my sister-in-law Late Smt. Rani Devi were present. My marriage was also attended by my sister Smt. Santosh and my brother Sh. Kishan Lal who are alive as on date. My sister Smt. Santosh resides in Vijay Nagar, Delhi, opposite PS Vijay Nagar. I do not know her complete address. My brother Sh. Kishan Lal resides at M-14, Majnu Ka Tilla, Delhi. From the side of deceased Naresh Kumar, his sister Smt. Sunita Devi had attended the marriage who is still alive. I do not remember if I had signed in any register at the time of my marriage with Late Sh. Naresh Kumar. I have filed the photographs of marriage in the present case."

16. From the same, it prima facie appears that a marriage ceremony had taken place between the petitioner no.1 and late Sh. Naresh Kumar. No doubt there is lack of clarity regarding the time line and the petitioner no.1/PW1 is not able to clearly depose regarding the date of her marriage with late Sh. Naresh Kumar. Nonetheless, in my considered opinion, it cannot be ignored that the present proceedings are for the limited purpose of grant of succession certificate and only prima facie satisfaction is required.

17. I am, thus, inclined to hold that it is prima facie shown that petitioner no.1 had got married to the deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar, though the exact date of marriage is not proved. However, it is not sufficient that marriage of petitioner no. 1 with late Sh. Naresh Kumar is prima facie shown to have taken place, for the reason that the marriage should also be proved to Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

be prima facie legal and valid. Admittedly, in the present case, both the petitioner no.1 and late Sh. Naresh Kumar were previously married to other individuals before getting married to each other. Following cross examination of PW1/petitioner no.1 is relevant in this regard:

"I had got married to another man prior to getting married to deceased Late Sh. Naresh Kumar. I do not remember the date of first marriage, year of first marriage, name of my first husband or even my age at the time of my first marriage. I do not even remember as to how many years have passed since my first marriage. My first husband was not alive at the time of marriage with Late Sh. Naresh Kumar. I do not remember how many years had passed between death of my first husband and my marriage with Late Sh. Naresh Kumar."

18. From the above cross examination of PW1, it can be seen that prior to her marriage with late Sh. Naresh Kumar, she had married another man. As per PW1 her first husband was not alive at the time of her marriage with the deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar. But, in this regard she has not brought any material on record either in the form of death certificate of her previous husband vis a vis proof of date of marriage with the deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar. Rather, she has also failed to clearly depose regarding the dates of death of previous husband or marriage with late Sh. Naresh Kumar.

19. Similarly, the deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar was previously married to respondent no. 2. As per evidence affidavit of respondent No. 2/RW1, she got married to deceased Naresh Kumar on 10.05.1978. Date of marriage of respondent No. 2 with deceased is not disputed by petitioner. As per the petitioner no.1 herself, the decree of divorce was passed between the Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

respondent no. 2 and late Sh. Naresh Kumar on 13.10.2006. Aadhar card of the second child of the petitioner no.1 i.e. petitioner no.3/Nisha shows her date of birth of the year 1992. Petitioner no.1 has not brought on record material to show that her marriage with late Sh. Naresh Kumar was solemnized after the decree of divorce. Rather, from the facts and circumstances of the case including the documents tendered by PW1, it prima facie appears that marriage of petitioner no.1 with late Sh. Naresh Kumar was solemnized atleast prior to 13.10.2006.

20. What follows from above discussion is that the petitioner no.1 has failed to prove that at the time of her marriage with late Sh. Naresh Kumar, her first husband had died and that the first marriage of late Sh. Naresh Kumar (with respondent no.2) had been dissolved. Thus, marriage of petitioner no. 1 with late Sh. Naresh Kumar has not been proved to be legally valid. Rather, prima facie on the basis of record, it appears to be a void marriage as per the provisions of S. 5 and S.11 of the Hindu Marriage Act, 1955.

21. Thus, it can be said that the marriage of Petitioner no. 1 with late Sh. Naresh Kumar, is prima facie void and marriage of respondent no.2 with late Sh. Naresh Kumar had already been dissolved. Thus, in my considered opinion, neither petitioner no. 1 nor respondent no.2 are entitled for succession certificate in the present case.

22. Coming now to the status of petitioner no.2 and petitioner no.3, it is Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

important to note that PW1 also admitted in her cross examination that she had a son from her first marriage, namely, Sh. Vinay Kumar. When she was further questioned as to why the name of deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar was shown as father of Vinay Kumar, she answered that late Sh. Naresh Kumar accepted Sh. Vinay as his child. She also deposed that she did not have the birth certificate of Vinay Kumar and she did not remember the year in which he was born. Thus, admittedly, petitioner no. 2 is the biological child of the first husband of the petitioner no.1 i.e. he is not the biological child of the deceased and there is nothing on record to show that he was legally adopted by late Sh. Naresh Kumar. Hence, he cannot be regarded as legal heir of the deceased and he is also not entitled to the succession certificate.

23. As regards petitioner no. 3 / Nisha who is stated to be the daughter of petitioner no.1 and the deceased, there is nothing to show that she is not the biological child of deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar. PW1 denied the suggestion that Nisha was the biological daughter of her first husband and nothing contrary is brought on record by the respondent no.2.

24. At this stage reference must be made to the certain important provisions and relevant legal position.

I. S. 387 of the Indian Succession Act, deals with effect of decisions under this Act, and liability of holder of certificate thereunder. It reads as under:

No decision under this Part upon any question of right between any parties shall be held to bar the trial of the Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

same question in any suit or in any other proceeding between the same parties, and nothing in this Part shall be construed to affect the liability of any person who may receive the whole or any part of any debt or security, or any interest or dividend on any security, to account therefore to the person lawfully entitled thereto.

It implies that grant of succession certificate does not bar adjudication of civil disputes between the same parties on the same point by a civil court and the person to whom the succession certificate is granted shall always be accountable to the person who is lawfully entitled to the amounts received under the succession certificate.

II. Section 373 of the Indian Succession Act deals with procedure on application. Sub section (3) of Section 373 reads as under:

If the Judge cannot decide the right to the certificate without determining questions of law or fact which seem to be too intricate and difficult for determination in a summary proceeding, he may nevertheless grant a certificate to the applicant if he appears to be the person having prima facie the best title thereto.

It implies that succession certificate can be granted to a person on the basis of prima facie best title.

III. Section 16 of Hindu Marriage Act deals with legitimacy of children of void and voidable marriages. Sub section (1) and (3) of Section 16 reads as follows:

1. Notwithstanding that a marriage marriage is null Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

and void under section 11, any child of such marriage who would have been legitimate if the marriage had been valid, shall be legitimate, whether such child is born before or after the commencement of the Marriage Laws (Amendment) Act, 1976 (68 of 1976), and whether or not a decree of nullity is granted in respect of that marriage under this Act and whether or not the marriage is held to be void otherwise than on a petition under this Act.

2. *****

3. Nothing contained in sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) shall be construed as conferring upon any child of a marriage which is null and void or which is annulled by a decree of nullity under section 12, any rights in or to the property of any person, other than the parents, in any case where, but for the passing of this Act, such child would have been incapable of possessing or acquiring any such rights by reason of his not being the legitimate child of his parents.

The above provision confers legitimacy on children born out of void marriages and also deals with their rights in the property of parents.

IV. Recently in the judgment passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in the case of Revanasiddappa and Another vs Mallikarjun and Others reported in 2023 SCC OnLine SC 1087, Section 16 of the Hindu Marriage Act has been discussed and it has been inter alia held that in terms of sub-section (1) of Section 16, a child of a marriage which is null and void under Section 11 is statutorily conferred with legitimacy and that such a child will have rights to or in the property of the parents but not in the property of any other person.

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

V. In the case of Atul Maithel vs State Bank of India & Anr.

reported in 2017 SCC OnLine Del 10921, decided by Hon'ble High Court of Delhi, it has been held as follows:

8. What follows from the aforesaid provision is that when the Judge decides the right to the debts and securities with respect where to Succession Certificate claimed to belong to the applicant, the Judge can make an order for the grant of certificate to the applicant under Section 373(2) and in such a case Section 375(1) does not require the grantee to furnish any bond with sureties. However, if the Judge cannot decide the right to the certificate without determining the questions of law or fact which seem to be too intricate and difficult for determination in a summary proceeding, the Judge can under Section 373(3), nevertheless grant a certificate to the applicant if he appears to be the person having prima facie the best title to the debts and securities with respect to which Succession Certificate claimed. In such an eventuality, Section 375(1) requires a bond with sureties to be furnished.

9. There is nothing in the order granting Succession Certificate indicate that the same is under Section 373(2) or that the applicant has been adjudged to be the sole claimant or sole heir of the debts and securities of the deceased with respect to which Succession Certificate claimed and has been granted. The grant of Succession Certificate thus under Section 373(3) supra finding the petitioner to be only prima facie best title to the said debts and securities. Grant of such a Succession Certificate the grantee thereof only to collect the debts and securities of the deceased in the hands of others and imposes an obligation on the grantee to thereafter distribute the same amongst the heirs at law of the deceased. Since the grantee is being authorized to collect the debts and securities and it has not been finally determined that he alone is the heir of Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

the deceased, Section 375(1) prescribes the grant of Succession Certificate be made subject to furnishing of Indemnity Bond, to ensure that the grantee, on receiving the debts and securities of the deceased, distributes them amongst the heirs at law of the deceased.

25. What emerges from the above cited legal provisions and case laws is that succession petition can be granted on the basis of prima facie best title; the questions decided in present proceedings can be raised again way of a civil suit between the same parties; children born out of void marriages are legitimate and they are entitled to share in the property of the parent. Applying the said legal position to the facts of the present case, I am satisfied that the succession certificate in the present case can be granted to petitioner no. 3/ Nisha. It must also be noted that no other legal heir has come forward to claim the succession certificate in the present case. Respondent no. 2 has deposed in her affidavit that no child was born out of her marriage with the deceased. Apart from that, no other relative i.e, parent / brother / sibling of the deceased has come forward to claim a better title than that of petitioner no. 3. In the circumstances, in my opinion, petitioner no. 3 is the best person to be granted the succession certificate in the present case. It must also be clarified at this stage that present proceedings u/s. 372 Indian Succession Act are summary in nature and the aforesaid observation and conclusion have been made merely for the limited purpose of grant of succession certificate and ought not to be taken as civil declaration on the existence and legal status of the marriage of petitioner no.1 with deceased late Sh. Naresh Kumar or as civil declaration on the paternity of deceased over petitioner no.3.

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

26. It may also be pertinent to note at this stage that insofar as the issue of family pension is concerned, in the present case, arrears of pension are not claimed i.e. the pension amount which may have accrued to the deceased prior to his death, which would have passed on to the legal heirs of the deceased as per the law of succession. However, in case of death of an employee during service, which is the case herein, the entitlement is to be decided in terms of family pension scheme for government employees. Moreover, in such a case, there is no debt or security that has accrued in favour of the deceased to be paid by the employer. Thus, in my opinion, succession certificate in the present case is not liable to be granted in respect of family pension.

27. In view of the aforesaid discussion, I find that succession certificate has to be granted in favour of petitioner no.3 for transmission/receiving the following service benefits held in the name of deceased Late Sh. Naresh Kumar:

S.No.	Detail	Amount to be paid
i.	GPF	Rs. 93,056/-
ii.	Death CGEIS (lumpsum amount)	Rs. 15,000/-
iii.	Saving Fund (CGEIS)	Rs. 10,223/-
iv.	Death -cum-Retirement Gratuity	Rs. 3,23,775/-
v.	Leave Encashment (16 days Earned Leave and 24 days Half Pay Leave)	Rs. 13,431/-
	Total	Rs. 4,55,485/-
vi.	Recovery for leave without pay	(-) Rs. 63,956/-
	Grand Total	Rs. 3,91,529/-

28. Consequently, the present petition is allowed and succession Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.

certificate be issued to petitioner no.3 on filing of requisite Court Fees of Rs. 7,831/- (rounded off), in terms of Article 12, Schedule I of the Court Fee Act, 1870 as applicable to Delhi. An indemnity bond of the petitioner no.3 in the sum of Rs.3,91,529/- alongwith one surety bond of same amount shall also be filed as a pre condition for obtaining succession certificate.

29. File be consigned to Record Room after due compliance.

Announced in the open court on 26.09.2023

(SWATI GUPTA-I)
ACJ/CCJ/ARC, NDD, PHC
NEW DELHI : 26.09.2023

Sushma Devi and Ors Vs. State & Anr.