

Smt. Archana Sharma vs Ashutosh Sharma on 30 January, 2017

1

F.A. No.220/2016

30.01.2017

Shri G.S.Sharma, Advocate for the appellant.

Shri Dharmendra Nayak, Advocate for the respondent.

Learned counsel for the appellant wife insists for a stay to prevent the respondent husband from marrying again. There is no need to issue stay in the matter as the provision of Sec 15 of Hindu Marriage Act comes in way of the respondent husband to marry again as the present appeal has been filed with the prescribed period of limitation.

Appeal being arguable is admitted.

Record has been received.

List the matter alongwith F.A. No.244/16 on 16.02.2017 as the same has been filed by the respondent husband against the same judgment and decree which is assailed herein.
